

For The Love of Cocktails celebrates the art of mixology with three-day event

Celebrate Valentine's Day weekend with a lot of cocktails in the city of sin, all for a good cause!

For The Love Of Cocktails, presented by Back Bar USA in partnership with world-renowned mixologist and author Tony Abou-Ganim, will take over Delano Las Vegas at Mandalay Bay with an innovative three-day mixology event Feb. 12-14.

The For The Love Of Cocktails festivities will kick off on Thursday, Feb. 12 with an exclusive Meet The Masters Wine Dinner at Aureole from 6 to 9 p.m. Attendees will enjoy champagne and wine cocktails followed by a five-course meal and wine pairing by master sommeliers.

To follow up the wine dinner, For The Love Of Cocktails will host its Grand Gala at miX on Friday, Feb. 13. The gala will feature more than 30 mixology stations, live entertainment and gourmet bites. To round out the three-day affair, enjoy a fabulous weekend brunch at Della's Kitchen on Saturday, Feb. 14 from noon to 3 p.m.

In addition to the headlining events, the weekend will be filled with a lineup of seminars and mixers to celebrate the craft of mixology.

For The Love Of Cocktails proceeds will go to the Helen David Relief Fund for Bartenders Affected by Breast Cancer, a charitable organization that assists women in the bar industry by providing pre-screening services for breast cancer.

Tickets to individual events and weekend passes are available.
